I really enjoy JJ's writing style - she strikes the right balance between woo-woo concepts like projecting the right energy and very actionable and strategic steps to advance your career. The book has worksheets and some really through provoking material - it's something you can go back to time and time again. The chapters stand alone so you can pick up wherever you like. If you feel stuck in your career, this is a must read.

Something for everyone. Whether you are settled, searching or swimming upstream in a new job, JJ shares lots of realistic insights on how to invigorate and navigate your career. This book should be savored - read it over a couple weekends, pen and "to-do" list in hand. You will find multi-layered breadcrumbs to additional sources, and if you don't have time to track them all down, JJ shares the highlights on the page. What I loved best was her approach to the advice we are not all in the same place or on the same path, so you will find multiple approaches to each suggestion. JJ does what the best coaches do - she gives you the critical questions you need to answer to create your own authentic path.

JJ-Your book was great- insightful, inspiring, yet quick,easy to read. I gained a great deal of insight, despite it being geared for women with more experienced careers. I feel grateful to have (finally) read this book during my current rotation (vs when I purchased it) because I feel under utilized, bored in my current role.I really enjoyed reading about your sweet cleaning lady, Chris, and how L&L enjoy the mentoring chart. You've communicated some great messages. Thanks for sharing all of the stats, facts, and tips. Above all, thanks for writing a great book!- Emily B.

This book is so incredibly helpful!!!! I needed this to assist with my future career plans! JJ is an amazing author..I have both of her books and reference them often before an interview or networking event!! If you haven't read this book, you need to! You will be so glad you did!

JJ really knocks it out of the park with this one! As a stay at home mom for 16 years and now starting back into the career field, I feel this has been a perfect fit to help me navigate my career path. Her experience and insight has given me a playbook on how to succeed. Thanks JJ!

ACCELERATE YOUR IMPACT is my new bible. Not kidding. I'm using this as my guide right now because I'm so damn STUCK in my career (or lack there of). JJ's voice is clear and gets to the point. This book is finally EMPOWERING me to make real changes. I hear the word "empowerment" used all the time right now, but I find that many times it's just fluff that sounds nice with ZERO substance to truly empower any woman, man or child to do anything other than feel validated. JJ makes me feel like I can and SHOULD do something about my situation. I'm not even in tech, I work in the illustrious entertainment industry as a FREELANCE (aka modern-day slavery) Reality TV Producer. Despite almost exclusively working for the same company for the last 5 years and ALWAYS getting praise for a job well done, I have been stuck at the same rate for FOUR years. I am 38 years old and I feel like I've spent the last decade, attempting to build a career in a cut-throat, male-dominated industry, while driving full speed into a BRICK WALL. At the same time, I'm exhausted bc I am in the trenches and busting my tail on a daily basis. At the end of the day, I want to change this and I want to change that, but I usually just go to bed and do it all again the next day. How do I know ACCELERATE YOUR IMPACT is working? I'm doing things I have never done before, but always kind of thought I was doing... like networking. Honestly, I was mentoring millennials left and right and this book has helped me realize - I need mentors too! And as I started to reach-out to EVPs and Executive Producers, I realized, Holy S, I've never really done this and followed through with people I admire. Last week, I initiated and hounded a very intimidating EP, to let me bring her coffee. I could tell in her emails that she was like...ugh, sure. She spent over an hour with me and gave me honest, valuable feedback on our wack-o industry. I first encountered JJ when looking for dynamic leaders and entrepreneurs to join the show "Cleveland Hustles" (LeBron James). SHE IS THE REAL DEAL. What do I mean? She has lived everything she's encouraging her readers to do and she listens and digs and cares #SINCERE. Bottom line: JJ is a visionary and this book is a GAME-CHANGER for any woman feeling stuck in her industry. xo

My husband bought the book...I read it. So, this is actually a post by Debi Easterday. This is the autobiography of most professional women that I know. Accelerate Your Impact resonated with me in a way that forced me to take a serious look at how I have been living the entirety of my professional life. Apologizing. Self-sabotaging. Overcompensating. This is a book for those who have big dreams and a million little excuses why they will never come true. It is a guide to self-efficacy, to digging your path to greatness to engaging with other women so that we might find collective power in a true sense of unity. I will make my daughter read this book before she begins her professional career path so that she can potentially avoid the same pitfalls that have kept me in "my place" for way too long. Thank you for your words, your work and your inspiration, JJ. Can't wait to read more of your work.

Easily maps out a plan for success!! Need I say more!? Just finished reading and now I am READY TO ROCK! Highly recommend for anyone looking to sharpen their angles and perfect their professional path.
