The Wine Lover's Guide To The Rhone And South-east France (The Wine Lovers Guide Series)

Synopsis

In this series of illustrated paperbacks for lovers of French wines, each volume is devoted to an important wine-growing region. Following the wine trail to the warm south through the lush green valley of the Rhone and the landscapes of Languesdoc and Provence, the photographs in this book give form to famous names of the wine world such as Chateauneuf-du-Pape and Hermitage, Fitou and Beaumes-de-Venise. Each book in the series has a comprehensive wine buying guide for the area, a special case for tasting, details of gastronomic specialities, hotel and restaurant recommendations, listings of Chateaux and museums open to the public and a calendar of events enabling holiday makers to time their visits to coincide with local festivities.
