Seaman's Journal

Synopsis

A trade paperback edition of the award-winning tale of the journey of Lewis and Clark. When Seaman, a Newfoundland dog, met his new master in August of 1803, he didn't know that he would spend the next three years on an adventure of more than 8,000 miles to the Pacific Ocean and back. Seaman's Journal is based on actual entries in Meriwether Lewis's journal describing Seaman, and it presents an account of the Lewis and Clark expedition as seen from the viewpoint of Lewis's dog. Join Seaman before the trip as preparations take place. Meet the Native American guides and friends they encountered along the way. And read of Seaman's love for Sacajawea, the Shoshone woman whose husband acted as interpreter and guide. Ages 5-8.

Patricia Reeder Eubank won a Teacher's Choice award for her historical children's book Seaman's Journal: On the Trail with Lewis and Clark. She has written and illustrated many other titles for Ideals Publications, including ABCs of Easter, ABCs of Halloween and Valentine ABCs. She lives in Santa Ynez Valley of California with her family.

The story of Seaman, the dog who accompanied Lewis & Clark on their history-making journey, is well-told in this wonderful picture book. After reading it, I realized I needed another copy. The beautiful illustrations are suitable for framing, and that's exactly what I did. I have a Newfoundland dog, and it is hard to find many things featuring this breed. I highly recommend adding this book to your collection. Oh, and my children love it, as well!

Love this book! Based on the story of a Newfoundland who accompanied Lewis & Clark on their quest for the Northwest Passage.

Wonderful introduction to Lewis and Clark's journey to the Pacific Ocean.

My 8 year old grandson LOVES all of Patti Eubank's books!

Ã Â Seaman's Journal: On the Trail with Lewis and Clark is one of Julien's favorite books. There are many books - for adults and kids - about the Lewis and Clark Expedition and all the people involved. However, not too many books focus on the journey from the point of view of Seaman, the massive Newfoundland dog that accompanied Lewis for the entire trip to the Pacific and back. Not only do young readers learn about Seaman's specific contributions (fending off bison) and problems (beaver bites...ouch!) through journal-type entries and great illustrations, but the book also shares the major events of the expedition. The book even has a pemmican recipe in the back! Check out more of Julien's reviews on his Youtube channel - julesandmetv and follow us on twitter @julesandmetv

My kindergartner (5 years) and I enjoyed using this book in our home school this year. The illustrations are beautiful. We referred to the map in the beginning of the book often. My son was amused that a dog was keeping a journal and loved identifying and learning about the various animals they saw on the expedition. This was a great way to show writing from different view points and keeping a journal. This ended up being the text that we used most frequently and one I am glad we purchased. Ours also came with a built in ribbon book mark that made the book even more enticing for my little ones.
