Neal Urban is a wedding photographer currently residing in Buffalo, NY who captures weddings across the country. Neal is entering his sixth year of photography. Neal is a self-taught photographer. Dating back in the 1930's his great-grandfather was a master with a camera and in the darkroom. At the age of 26, after the passing of Neal's grandfather, he picked up his grandfather's camera from the WWII era and found his passion. It's obvious that their talent of photography lives on through Neal. Neal is one of the pioneers of using the post-processing style known as HDR and successfully implementing that style into wedding photography. "Neal Urban-ize" appears to be the name of what many people like to call it. Neal actively shares his techniques with fellow photographers.

I purchased this book as a wedding photographer, and one who has been in awe of Neal since I first started seeing his images. This book is chock full of useful, helpful information with images that will consistently inspire. The information that Neal and Danielle share in this book is essential for those looking to get started into wedding photography, and in this day and age, you won't find people like Neal and Danielle, that are willing to put themselves out there the way that they do. This book is a "must purchase" for anyone looking to improve their skills.

Wow! the cover says it all. You can believe this book by its cover! Every wedding is a couple's dream and this book captures interesting poses and ideas outside of the lens...
