Tom Wolfe Carves Wood Spirits And Walking Sticks (Schiffer Book For Woodcarvers)

Synopsis

Legend has it that the forest of the world are inhabited by elusive creatures known as "Wood Spirits." Tom Wolfe finds them everywhere and brings them to life in this delightful new instructional book. Using found wood such as driftwood, roots, and old beams from dilapidated barns, he leads the reader through the carving of wondrous, fanciful faces, that are both enchanting and beautiful. On a smaller scale, Tom also finds the Wood Spirits in walking sticks, creating treasures that are handsome and functional at the same time. Tom has been carving these Spirits for years, and they are constantly in demand. Now he leads the carver, step-by-step, through their creation, each step illustrated in beautiful color photographs. An extensive gallery is included, jam-packed with examples and ideas for the reader's own work.

Tom Wolfe is one of the leading caricature woodcarvers in America. He carves and teaches at his studio in Spruce Pine, North Carolina.

Great step by step carving illustrations.

A must have book for carving hope it helps

The second line of the title is misleading, this is all about the spirit faces. Good step-wise procedures for design and tool selection. I'll use it as I expand my wood carving efforts.

a terrific how to for beginners

I liked this book quite a lot. As a beginner it showed me both hand carving and mallet techniques...which I was not expecting. Also a wide variety of knives and gouges are shown, so you get an understanding of when to use which type.

My parents own a cabin high in the mountains. I am excited to be able to pick out wood for walking sticks and carve them in to beautiful works of art. This book is easy to follow the steps. I look forward to my new adventure.

Knew mr. Wolfe wrote one of my favorite books, had no idea how good he was working wth wood. It's art on another level!
