Customer Reviews

Short book, quick read. Profusely illustrated and well researched. Comes with a poster and clip art CD. What I liked most was the comprehensive coverage of where the Norse lived, their roles in society, their diets, their daily life. It is a book that thankfully dispels myths of Norse people as savages. Infact, culturally, they were ahead of their time in metal working, commerce, navigation and ship design. They made goods and did a lot of trading, and sailed far and often resettled because of the need to feed people.

I have this as a Chanukah gift to two little girls, age 4 and 6. Their mother is a teacher and liked educational books. She liked these. She read it with them and they asked questions and learned from it. You just cannot go wrong with Eyewitness Books.

This was an awesome book about the Vikings. I recommend it to those who like the Vikings and would like to know a little bit about their history.

Love these books. You can sit down with your kids with these books and your child's curiosity will keep them turning the pages... I would recommend this company. Book arrived on time and was exactly what I wanted. Thank you for your excellent customer service!

Purchased for Grandson who is currently into "Vikings". Great colored pictures and information. Durable quality and interesting to both young adolescents and adults.

This is a great book with great illustrations. A clear informative book which clears away many misconceptions. Interesting for children and adults alike.

Bought this for my parents as a gag gift because they are going on a cruise through the Nordic nations. They're gonna laugh so hard when I give it to them.

Informative book! I've done lots of research, but this book contained some things I'd never heard before.
