Great compendium of couple poses. They are also put in different perspectives and undressed so that you can view the anatomy in anime style. The only thing I wish they had was variations in body types. The characters all had the same body type, but I'm sure a good artist could get around that.

I expected a little more from this. It's very PG. And couples can be two figures of different ages--not just two youthful people holding hands, etc. Would not buy again.

This book is very helpful in showing how to express intimacy with your characters. It offers great advice of where to start and what sequence to go in. Its packed with a lot of great inspiring examples. It also contains a variety of examples for young and old couples as well as same sex. couples. This book also demonstrates how even the tiniest details can bring out stronger display of emotion in your characters

How to Draw Manga Couples is perfect for anyone wanting to create a romantic one-shot for boy to girl, boy to boy, and girl to girl. It covers so much, and it is by far my favorite How to Draw Manga book because it covers so much that you can actually create an entire one-shot from just using only this book. (And if you have a bit of drawing background) This book covers almost everything that creates the perfect scene(s) for a couple: Chapter 1- Theory Behind Drawing Couples (Simple) Basic chapter of understanding types of couples, in terms of age and height. Chapter 2- Dating to Making Love (The important chapter) It features encounters, walking couple (walking together), holding hands while walking, clinging to arm, arm over shoulder, hand over shoulder, arm around waist, sitting, sitting side by side, sitting close to each other, contact between hands, touching the face or head, looking into each others eyes, two characters cuddling, grabbing or embracing from behind, embracing, kissing scenes, kissing scenes continued. Then we have Bedroom Scenes (They are not explicit, except the breasts of women) It features sleeping side by side, couple on a bed, intertwined, characters on top of each other, couple in the mood, bonus. After that, we have Marriages/Engagements/Weddings. It features putting on a ring, sitting on ones knees (Not as in proposal), wedding outfits, picking up in arms. Chapter 3- Techniques of Manga Artists This presents various artwork styles and couples to help the reader get inspiration for his/her next artwork.

Great reference!

I love this book. It's the 8th How To Draw Manga Book in my constantly growing collection. I decided to get this book when I felt that it was time to add a little more depth to my manga art. Mostly I draw single character comics, so I really wanted to add some couples to my manga. This book is a great reference and really helpful in breaking down the basis of two people together. However this is not a step-by-step instruction manual. If you are a beginner you should start with classes or maybe if you really want these books then start with How to Draw Manga Volume One: Getting Started. It should also be noted that book goes into depth about drawing heterosexual couples as well homosexual couples in various poses including making love. There is also nudity away for the couples in bed. Though the book doesn't go into hentai (animated Japanese pornography) type detail, it should be noted that it still references the material. I don't recommend this for parents looking to boost their children's art skills. And anyone who might be uncomfortable with this sort of material shouldn't buy this book. I recommend the entire series for those looking to expand their techniques.

This a good book of how to draw but if your old fashion like me and dont digest the idea to see homosexuality themes invade even the book industry well be prepare too. See this theme review in how to draw even in sexual pose's but. Besides this anti-bible commandments the book is fine

Why did I chose five stars? Because I really like to draw in my spare time. This book shows you different styles of couples from walking together, going out on a date and much more! I would recommend this book who are interested in Manga and a fan of it too!
