Jason Fry is the author of The Jupiter Pirates young-adult space-fantasy series and has written or co-written more than 30 novels, short stories, and other works set in the galaxy far, far away, including The Essential Atlas and the Servants of the Empire quartet. He lives in Brooklyn, New York, with his wife, son, and about a metric ton of Star Wars stuff.

Very neat pictures to color but the labeling of the tiny areas to paint get painted over with other colors. And only 10 paint colors. You have to mix and not enough paint to complete the project so you may want to buy more paints. Advice is to take a picture of the color by numbers so you can reference the color numbers after they are painted overShipper was great to work with.

Some of the numbers are off and do not match up with the picture painted on the box.
