Yellowstone Runners: Chasing A Dream Fish In Yellowstone National Park During The Madison River's Famous Fall Run

Synopsis

Yellowstone Runners is about the big brown and rainbow trout that migrate from Montana's Hebgen Lake into Yellowstone National Park's Madison River each fall. Join author Chester Allen, who has fished this run for years, as he fishes the Madison for more than three weeks. Learn about where to fish, what flies to use, and how to find the best water for very large trout! Learn how these big fish lurk in the Madison's fast, rocky runs, deep pools and weed-choked spring creek water. Interviews with guides from Blue Ribbon Flies in West Yellowstone are included in the book. This run has been famous for decades, and this book is the best way to start fly fishing for these tremendous fish.

Chester Allen, a lifelong fly angler, journalist and author, was the outdoor columnist for The Olympian newspaper in Olympia, WA, for many years. Allen also is the author of "Fly-Fishing for Sea-Run Cutthroat." Allen splits his time between Portland, Oregon and Hood River, Oregon, with plenty of trips to Puget Sound and Yellowstone National Park.

Five stars and then some! A delightful read packed with specific information about fishing for large trout in the Madison River and West Yellowstone region. The book is filled with fascinating stories that are interwoven with the practical information about this special fishery. The book is written by an author that has fished the West Yellowstone region every Fall since 1985. A must read book for serious fly fishers.
