Customer Reviews

I have an extensive collection of sacred music that I use in church. This book contains a variety of pieces, most of which are not included in my other collections. I have most of Marilyn Ham's other books and this one seems less challenging for an advanced musician since there are less runs. As always, she puts her special touch on every arrangement.

Great arrangements and so great to play. I use Cindy Berry's piano pieces for church services each Sunday and love them.

Gorgeous music! Great seller

One of my students wants to play a piece in this book. I look forward to helping him prepare the piece!

The arrangements are just weird enough to be weird, and not weird enough to be entertaining. Doesn't seem that i'll be able to use any of them. It's frustrating to try to get music over the internet if you don't know exactly what you want.

I have always love Mark Hayes arrangements. Most of his arrangements are harder to learn, but if I want to put the time into it I can usually learn them and feel comfortable enough to play them for church.

As a church organist/pianist for two churches this book gets lots of use.
