Richard Sherman is a songwriter and music director best known for his work with his late brother Robert. Some of the Sherman Brothers' best-known works include the songs from Mary Poppins, Bedknobs and Broomsticks, The Jungle Book, Winnie the Pooh, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, The Slipper and the Rose, and "it's a small world." A self-proclaimed cartoonist, Floyd Norman has worked in motion pictures, television, comic books and strips. He's been writing and drawing cartoons longer than most people have been alive. Floyd wrote the syndicated Mickey Mouse comic strip for King Features Syndicate and worked as an animator and story artist on at least a dozen feature animated films for both Walt Disney Studios and Pixar Animation Studios. Though retired, Floyd continues to work as a consultant for the Walt Disney Company and is currently producing animation for the studio's Special Projects Unit. He has also helped develop video games and toys for Disney Consumer Products.

I love the song and am even more impressed with the story. It is beautifully done. I knew it would be fantastic because it was done by Richard Sherman and Floyd Norman. Floyd Norman's artwork is exquisite. My only complaint is you can't get to the CD without damaging the book or this paper CD sleeve. I want to hear the music but am unwilling to damage the book. I wish I could purchase the CD separately.

This is meant to be a gift and I'm not sure what I was expecting but what this is was not it. It's a story about Walt that has the lyrics to the song at the bottom of the page. I suppose I was expecting more illustrations that matched the song as the backcover sort of suggested. That being said, from what I glanced at it, it looks well done and I still believe it will make a great gift.

Beautiful book, beautiful song by a great man. A must for all Disney lovers.

wife and daughter liked the book

If you're like me, the main reason you'll buy this book is to get the recording of Ashley Brown singing the title song written by Richard Sherman. The recording was made to play after Disneyland's 60th anniversary fireworks show, Disneyland Forever. I was blown away the first time I heard it at the park and have been looking forward to owning it ever since. Thank you, Richard Sherman for continuing to write songs that touch the heart through words and melody. Hopefully Disney continues to find projects for new Richard Sherman songs. Disney should have Ashley Brown record a full album of Disney music. She is phenomenal! I've heard her in concert and can't wait to hear her again. The book itself is also very nice. It's really a picture biography of Walt Disney. The text is well written and the illustrations are fun and engaging. The introductions from Richard Sherman and Floyd Norman at the beginning add a personal connection to Walt Disney.
