No Bull Review - Global History And Geography Regents: Global 1 And Global 2 Format

Synopsis

No Bull...This is a concise and to the point review for the New York State Global History and Geography Regents (Global 1 and 2 Format). Your review book shouldn't need a review book, and that's why we're here! This edition of No Bull Review contains all of the great material from our World History book, but is guided towards the Global Regents. It has definitions and explanations for the most important terms, concepts, & themes in the Global Studies and Geography curriculum. With 250 multiple choice questions, 20 Regents-style thematic essays, a comparative timeline, and an incredible review sheet that organizes the entire book, the No Bull Review is a must-have whether you are purchasing it for history class in September, or hours before the big exam. This book is designed for both the Global 1 and Global 2 student.

Harry Klaff taught high school social studies in the New York City public schools system for 34 years. In 1993, he was the honored recipient of the John Bunzel Memorial Award as NYC's social studies teacher of the year. As a member of city-wide Justice Resource Center, he helped write numerous curricula in law-related education. For many years, he created the annual Model City Council project, in which students took over New York's City Hall for a day-long simulation exercise. Jeremy Klaff has been teaching AP History classes for over a decade. His website, mrklaff.com has been utilized by teachers and students across the country for review materials as well as original social studies music. Jeremy has been a creative contributor to H2 Network, and has published Document Based Questions for Binghamton University's Women's History website, womhist.binghamton.edu. He has conducted staff developments for "Entertainment in Education" at both the high school and college level.

Awesome study tool! Wish I had purchased it at the beginning of the school year.
