Argentina The Beautiful, Uruguay And The Falklands (Uncle Buck's Travel Savers Book 4)

Synopsis

The perfect guide and travel planner for visitors to Buenos Aires, Iguacu Falls and coastal Argentina, and Montevideo and Coastal Uruguay, as well as the Falkland Islands. It is THE go-to guide for cruise ship travelers who are sailing South America or for travelers who wish to do coastal Argentina towns on their own. There are very detailed do-it-yourself trips in cities, and suggestions for local guides for day tours in more remote towns. They will save you over one thousand three hundred dollars or over a thousand euros compared to cruise ship excursion options for all the listed cities. Self-guided tours have turn-by-turn instructions and many rest stops at cafes and sights shown on color coded walking maps. Numerous colored pictures make for easy identification important sights at every stop on your trip. Buenos Aires the tango capital is the star. If you start or end your journey or even stop here, there are detailed plans for a three, five or seven day visit in the city and surroundings. A short section of history accompanies each city or town guide. This guide is just as useful for readers who travel on their own and are focused on travel value as well as ease and comfort. The author keeps your safety and convenience foremost in these plans.

Customer Reviews

There are good insights and many useful travel tips for South American cruisers in this narrative.

What a shame it is presented so poorly! One is left with the impression that this was hastily pasted together by an amateur, without any attempt at rational page layout (huge blank areas on many pages) and with no proof-reading or editing. Various pieces of text are sporadically highlighted for emphasis, but in many places the highlighting is opaque and obliterates the text. The maps and graphics are inconsistent, and have the appearance of having been cut out from various other sources and pasted onto a paper mockup. Some are unnecessarily turned 90 degrees, most of them are too small to be of any real use (a tiny fraction of the page), and are completely unreadable on a black & white Kindle. Some photos are blurry, including the cover photo. In this form the book should not have been accepted for publication.
