Not much difference between this and larger map of Romania

We bought this map to plan our 1 week trip to Transylvania by car. This map is very good to choose your overall trip plan, choose scenic routes to reach your destinations, although the quality of the roads are not always consistent with their type/color on the map. We have bought another map for detailed navigation locally, which has a much higher resolution (1:250000), but we still used this overview map to plan our daily trips. I recommend this product for trip planning in Transylvania!

This is a great map of the Erdely area. It didn't show the small village we were going to visit, but it showed the ones on either side. Definitely worth buying if you are travelling in this area.

The map is really good - even small roads (including distances) and villages are included, placenames have mostly both Romanian and Hungarian names, and a lot of sights, even the roads with beautiful views are marked. But, there is no any additional information about sights included, no city plans, just a map and a placename index.
