Customer Reviews

To be that beautiful, soft fine beauty that they call beautiful. The Photo book that Daniel Fehr put together is absolutely Beautiful. Each photo is a true Master piece so soft, so very beautiful. Daniel Fehr is wonderful photographer . Very Nice done I would recommend this photo book to any collector

This book should come with a warning - "Be Advised: Possibility of Sensual Overload!" This is powerful stuff and may be overwhelmingly beautiful. The numerous girls, the landscapes, even the sumptuous images of Daniel Fehr's semi-dilapidated, formerly industrial photostudio are captured in such a way as to maximize the sensual beauty within. Remember, to breathe. The title and cover photo suggest a more sexual work than what it really is. And though there is an element of lesbianism in a few parts, this is mostly a work of erotic nudes. But it most certainly is sensual. Fehr's unique style is built upon a powerful fusion of color and composition that when combined with his youthful and hyper-beautiful subjects is almost an assault on the senses and human heart. Perfect feminine faces, lush skin tones, flowing silky hair, and closeup shots of plump, hairless genitalia meld into a kaleidoscope of sensual perfection. Fehr is a master of the erotic nude - and this is one of the best collections of pussy photography to be found. But he doesn't stop there; many of his nudes are shot amidst equally beautiful Swiss landscapes. And, in contrast, many shots from his studio are included that incorporate elements of decay (painted walls peeling, broken glass, obnoxious graffiti). This is sensual photography in the grandest, most erotic sense.
