Customer Reviews

Wonderful pack. I had a lot of fun learning but it takes discipline to complete it. Must buy for language enthusiasts!

As the younger people say....This is the Bomb. This is a terrific course, and it really is a self-contained, self-study course. The dialogs build progressively; pronunciation is immediately below; and the relevant grammar is on the same page (in footnotes). The audio is superbly done, with several native German speakers. If a German learner commits to one lesson per day (30-60 minutes (assuming s/he listens to the audio several/many times after learning the translations and completing the two tiny sets of exercises)), then s/he'll complete the 100 lessons in, obviously, about 3 and a half months. Even if you don't care about checking into a hotel, or taking a train in Germany, etc., you must master each dialog in sequence. Then with a strong base you can focus on your specific needs/interests (e.g., your work-related stuff, school-related materials, regional specifics) using Anki, lingua.ly, italki, or whatever else works for you.
