Customer Reviews

Silly Willy was born in a small town named Gill's Hills. At the age of 6, Silly Willy moved to the top of Mount Everest to practice surfing. He failed terribly. He now tells silly jokes to anyone who will listen.

Grandson loved it!

My grandson is autistic and he loves to read these jokes to all his adult friends.

Kids loved the book we were struggling on making reading fun for our little ones. This turned reading into a fun activity instead of it just being homework.

fun to read with my child

My grandson loves the book. I bought it for him to take on vacation to read and get him away from iPad in their spare time. It worked.

Our grandson is 5, some of the jokes he gets now, the rest he will grown into. We have had a fun time with the book and so has he!

I bought this for my 6 year old granddaughter to read on a long car ride. She loved trying to stump us. Actually, it's more riddles than jokes. But still entertaining. I was happy to find a different sort of book. I would recommend this book.
