In addition to the Catholic Encyclopedia for Children, Ann Ball is the author of many titles, including Catholic Traditions in the Home & Classroom, Encyclopedia of Catholic Devotions, and Stations of the Cross Stations of Light. Julianne Will is a freelance writer, editor, marketing specialist, and designer. She is the author of Catholic Prayer Book for Children and Stations of the Cross for Children. Kevin Davidson is an award-winning watercolorist and illustrator.

It is beautifully written and illustrated. However, I have the toddler version of this bible and this is not much different. I was a little disappointed that it was so much like her young child's version. I was expecting something I could really use for my First Communion R.E. class. I liked the list of stories, pertinent to First Communion R.E. materials, but was disappointed in the simplicity of the stories. May use it anyway when time is short but will use a different children's Bible when more substance is needed.

I bought this as a gift for a child approaching First Communion. I was very pleased when I looked over the content of the book.

Happy with this book!

I bought this book for my students grade 2-5 and they all enjoyed it my 8 year old grandson could not put it down !!

Ideal for a first communion gift. Reading is easy for a child and I found it easier for myself to understand!

My grandson seemed to like this book that I gave him for his communion.

came through again. I sent this to my grandson for his First Communion this year. He loved his bible and I loved it.
