The Book Of Elven Runes: A Passage Into Faerie

Synopsis

The Book of Elven Runes contains 40 elfin runes for use as an oracle and as a magical script. These are not based on the Norse runes but are an original system created by the Silver Elves. The book is subtitled A Passage Into Faerie because each rune also advises a Magical Act that the magic wielder can perform to bring hir closer to Faerie. The use of these runes is itself an elfin spell cast in a unique way as each user weaves hir way deeper into the Elfin Realms.

Anything by the Silver Elves has been both educational as well as well written, I have enjoyed it and found it educational. This book is no exception. Each chapter explores new topic and ideas, and provides more fascination information. If you are interested in Fae/Fairies then any books by the Silver Elves are a must have for your library .

One of my favorite divination books. It is beautifully written and illustrated. I have taken my copy everywhere! So it is 'broken in' looking. If you like runes but want something a little different this is great book. If you are really into Elves or are an Elf you will LOVE this book!!!!kyelaDelfynasa

I agree that this book is an original and fresh oracle system. I purchased this book and am half way through it and it is wonderful. The runes are simple in their form yet complex and powerful in their meaning and use. As an oracle they are amazing and for their use in ritual even more profound. As with all the books of these authors I highly recommend this book to those seeking the realm of the fae.

I love the Silver Elves' books. "The Book of Elven Runes" is an original and unique system of divination with 40 elven runes (I was surprised to find that it is not based on either the Norse Runes or on Tolkien's runes). This book is subtitled a "Passage into Faerie" and I think for good reason as by following the oracle it helps in getting closer to understanding that wondrous realm.
