"Luck is something we latch onto because we believe in hope. And hope exists because we believe in something better." Sage advice from a wise family patriarch to his young grandson, Shane. Karina Halle has spun another golden web in this second chance romance set in the rugged mountain terrain of Canada. Prepare to be charmed by the first of three Nelson brothers.

This was a great second chance romance! Shane and Rachel had many obstacles to overcome once they came back into each other's lives but he was persistent! It was a great read that shows how they fell in love as teenagers and the horrible event that tears them apart. I was invested in them reading this and knew they were always meant to be!

Another great read from Karina Hale! Shane and Rachel had a rough road, but their love for each other was so genuine it was beautiful to read about. I loved Shane and am looking forward to reading about his brothers. One of my favorite things about Karina Hale's writing is how she describes her stories locations. The settings are always given the same attention as the characters. That she started off as a travel writer always comes through in her novels, and when I finish one of her books I always want to visit wherever she was writing about!

For some reason this was just not a favorite by this author. At times I felt like the writing was just not up to par with some of her other books....but that being said I did like the storyline and characters. And I am intrigued to read more about these rugged men!

Another great book by Ms. Halle. I can't even imagine a love that started out so young lasting that long. This book touched on some disturbing family issues. Good job on the characters finding the closure they needed to move on with their lives.

Just finished Wild Card and I loved it. Once I started I could not put it down. It tells of true love that never goes away with time. I thought it was beautifully written. This is the first book I read by Karina Halle and I look foreward to many more. Thank you Latina for a great read.

I absolutely love how this author's writing makes me feel everything the characters are going through. Shane was so yummy and honest! Where oh where can I get me a cowboy like him? I loved this story. Can't wait for the next one.

What a love story. All the ups and downs Shawn never gave up on his love for Rachel. She fought her love and what her Her heart wanted but true love came through. Hea and lot of steam.
