Customer Reviews

This is a nice little guide that is consistent with the high quality volumes we have used from Lonely Planet in the past. This guide will fit in your coat pocket--which you will likely need in Edinburgh most of the year. But it covers everything we needed in our 2 1/2 day stay.

Nice compact size that's easy to carry and contains a foldable map inside. Great tips on what not to miss, where to eat and how to get around. A lot of information in a small package.

Well written and updates (2017) guide, great map and the info is spot on, easy to carry around too.

Great Information! Maybe I should wait as I don't get there until tomorrow. However I have a better grasp of all the things to see and do in Edinburgh before I get there.

Exactly as expected. Great little pocket guide.
