For Girls Like You: A Devotional For Tweens

Synopsis

Tween girls have access to an unbelievable amount of media and information with just a simple click of the remote or mouse. Every outlet they turn to attempts to subtly influence their worldview...and what they believe about themselves directly affects how they live. Wynter Pitts, founder of For Girls Like You magazine, gives girls a new devotional showing them a correct definition of themselves, opening their eyes to God's truth and the difference it makes in their lives. Each daily devotion includes a prayer to help girls apply the lesson. "If you've wondered whether there is anything left on the planet to entertain your young beauties that promotes morals you'd approve of, look no further" — Author and speaker Priscilla Shirer

"If you've wondered whether there is anything left on the planet to influence and entertain your tween daughter that promotes morals you'd approve of, look no further." — New York Times bestselling author and Bible teacher Priscilla Shirer "A daily tidbit of God's Word turns into a feast over time. Every girl must have a resource like this on her nightstand." — Dannah Gresh, bestselling author of Six Ways to Keep the "Little" in Your Girl

Wynter Pitts is the founder of For Girls Like You, a ministry to girls that includes a print magazine, and the niece of Dr. Tony Evans. She has a drive to introduce young girls to Christian values so they can walk passionately and boldly. A native of Baltimore, Wynter resides in Dallas, Texas, with her husband, Jonathan, and their four daughters.

This book has been really good to read to my 11 year old daughter. I use it for our devotions that we do together before bedtime. It has given us some good discussions about how we need to live, act and think as Christians.

I bought this book for my niece. She's 10 and still very much a young girl (i.e., she is not into teenager issues like dating, make-up, etc.). She really likes the book, finds it relatable, and looks forward to reading it each night. I would highly recommend this purchase as it teaches valuable lessons in a very age-appropriate way.

came in time and my daughter was happy

My daughter loves this devotional. She keeps telling me how she can relate to it and how it's like the author could read her mind about how she's feeling. Very well done.

I bought this for my daughter (5th grade). We are reading through these devotionals together, and we really like them.

I got this book for the girls in my dance ministry, and so far they can't put the book down. It's a must read for tween, the girls love it. My 10 year old niece who is also a member of the dance ministry, can't stop reading this book. It's a blessing the girls love it!!

Quick and easy for my daughter. Still going through the book.
